Barnard Carron

Minister - 14

14 years

J. Gillibrand Esq^r

7th

Charged with defamation of Character - and styled of lewdly - by Mr. E. Nicholas Junior -

E. Nicholas being sworn Sath - I am Supt of Mr Gillibrands farm at Kinn--bottom - Barnard Carron was lately sent up as an apprentice servant by Mr Gillibrand - with the following Memorandum - "Mr Nicholas, you will "B. Carron in the Gardens that is "live and let him make himself "generally useful, but I do not "want you to put him to hard work."
Bye - J. T. Gillibrand

I become Barnard Carron to do some light work in the Gardens, of which he only did part, working only an hour or two in the day, he has not passed a whole day without doing some work since he came up - A man named Cartton one of the servants, informed me, that Carron has been saying many things to my disadvantage, & that he knew something that would do me to the devil - Carron has never shown any disposition to or refuse to do any work that I ordered him to do - x? Carron has commenced at the work I set him to, but has generally done very little - Carron has always been very respectful to me.

Wm. Carlton, Suron, Faith - I am fully satisfied & employed in the service of Mr Gellibrand at Kimball's On Sunday last I was in the garden and the Gard^r ordered Carron to work which he would not do - As Carron came out to the garden told me that he was annoyed by the Gard^r & that he would not be obliged to work by that such a fellow as that - & then W.
Nicholas was a greater rascal for allow^g the Gard^r to take such authority that he would write to Mr Gellibrand to tell him what had been going on for the last 6 months - that I would wonder soon to have a beating - & that he knew something that would send W. Nicholas to the devil - & that I knew all about - I then told I would tell Mr Nicholas what he had said to me & I did so. The next morn^g Carron was ordered to cut potatoes - Carron came to the hut & ask^{ed} me for a knife to cut potatoes - I saw that he was fooling me, but that he had better go to Mr Nicholas for one - I asked him who the man he was going to bring a knife against me, who would strike me - has? the last thing I do was to drop it - what I do? I do? not do - x^d the said was his stark chape after Garden ^{on} the Sunday the conversion took place

- the said was ^{him} there in the forenoon of that day? - I cannot say whether - Carron knew that he was ^{him} there as a Gardener! - The Gardener was Cohen.
I did not call Carron out & tell him to go to Mr. Nicholas? - Carron came to me abt. his treat^{ment} from the said - since he was not sent there to work - when I recommended him to go to Mr. Nicholas?
I mean s^d to Carron that he was a heavy man - & that he had ^{him} 7 men & that he should not be the cause of having more men there? - I never s^d that Carron was sent up there as a spy - & that I would have him up to the Police Off. & let him flee - I was the only man that would oblige Carron about the place? - he had got into contention with all the others -

Matthew Reegan, Drown, Smith - Abt. a fortnight or so work Carron came up to Kimbaltor? - Carron has lived in the Scams but with me since he came up - I have always s^d Carron speak respectfully of Mr. Nicholas - I have seen Carron was at work like other men as I have passed his my meals to the land - x^d by Mr. Nicholas -

I have remarked by Carron to go to wife of: Carron, as he had taken him into Custody once when a Constable - Since Carron left Humberston Thame, heard the men say that he was a troublesome man, causing disturbance &c -

F. D. Constable

Charge, with having gone to a public house to purchase spirits at an improper hour of the night.
I went with him the same at an improper hour with a Sunday school.
Mr. Vincent, Sworn, said that Constable Clarke came to his house twice at improper hours - once on a Sunday morning before Church - & on another occasion after 10 o'clock on the evening, but was refused spirits both times - it was 5 minutes after 8 o'clock when Clark came to go to the Sworn said at a height of foot Clark was going to carry a letter from the place where he was going on duty & I had then demanded from him a glass of spirits - there was on a Sunday evening - I knew him that money in a small bottle to fetch it in
- it was just about dusk - he returned with a bottle of spirits - then the spirits as it was after hours - that he was very sorry he went first with me & I supposed he went for an improper intention - I went into the Justice house next to his own & I the Justice say it was then 8 o'clock

Said: Smith - Clark said - On a Sunday - I was going to my station before 9 & 10 o'clock - I felt very much reluctant to Charles R. R. & I was there & directed me to take a glass of spirits when I found my complaint becoming worse, & it is a matter of course I declared it was not my intention to buy a glass for Mr. Vincent's purposes for the spirits -

Samuel Prewett - Bengal Merchant - 1898 - a prisoner to Lord Lonsdale - to 50 lashes for neglect of duty, and for saying in my presence that if he was punished he would be ~~the~~ the most useful man upon the farm - I mention this part of his offence particularly, having promised him should he again be found to be a long spell in chains in the dock gully, which I should have sentenced him to in this case did I not consider that by so doing the master is as much punished as the man - I have the honor

Waatacote 24. April 1850

Dear Sir

I have to acquaint you with the Case of six of Mr Lord's men, who were brought before me yesterday by Mr Ladds the Superintendent of the Lawrence estate, charged by him with disobedience of orders.

William Arnold does not know his sentence - 7 years Frederick James Brown / do / 14 years Robert Goddard / do / 14 years Henry Pickett 7 y. 3 months Merchant - 7 years William Marshall 7 y. 3 months Merchant - 7 years William Chivers does not know his sentence - does not know his sentence - when I asked him what his sentence was, he impudently answered none was ever passed.

These men & a boy refused to do any work whatsoever, on the 23 day His Majesty's Birth day, after Mr Ladds had twice ordered them, they made no defence, it appeared evidently to me that they had combined together, resolved to refuse work, and there being so large a number of men on that estate, I considered any thing in

Michael Vicary Esq
Police Magistrate
Rothwell.

the shape of a combination, richly deserving of exemplary punishment.

I therefore sentenced the first five men to fifty lashes and to be returned to the service of their master.

William Chivers, who by his manner before me and Mr Ladds's report of his general conduct I sentenced to nine months in the Chain gang, First Galley to be returned to his master's service.

I am
Dear Sir

Yours very truly on Saturday last the 29th May -

Mr. Good Sporn, Smith, & Co. contractors for the erection of Buildings at Bournemouth - On Saturday last the 29th ~~last~~ May Mr. Bragagne came to the site of the buildings and entered the plot occupied by the Government mechanics between 7 & 8 o'clock - bearing a message in the Street I went into it to ascertain the cause and found that Bragagne creating an uproar in the place, he was not drunk but he appeared as if he had been drinking

- I ordered him out of the Pub
- he then stood at me in a very indecent manner and said he would not be ordered about by me or any other settlers about the Township - he then came out of the Pub - I told him of the impropriety of his conduct - that I had previously had charge of foot men & that I always indicted those men who behaved improperly and performed their work - but that I did not I would have punished - I desired him to go away as it was not my wish to bring him before a Magistrate if I could avoid it - he commenced a repetition of the most offensive language - and at the same time put his hand into his pocket - took out a knife and putting it slightly behind his back, opened it - he said that when he had done his work he would come to Bottomwell or go away & spend his money and get drunk when and where he pleased - and that the whole people in the Colony should not hurt him out - that he would be hung up by his belly - dy neck before they should do so - and then threw the open knife from him

- it struck into the log about not more than a foot distant from a man (Carle) who was standing there - when he threw the knife he said he would take the ~~life~~ life of the first man who opposed him - after this he went away grumbling -

Burgoyne's duty is to report the struggle & fight in the Park 4 miles distant from Bottomwell he has no business at Bottomwell except to come for his Provisions on a Saturday or to attend Church on a Sunday - The Provision for the men in the Park were issued that day at Eleven O'Clock -

(Men Food)

Mr Carlik - I am sure I am one of the Government Juries employed at the Court, Doltwell - on Saturday Evening last Thomas Burgoyne came to the Court when I was in he was drunk & had a gun in his hand - he let the gun fall on one of the jurors toes - which created a dispute - and some noise - Mr Hood came to the Court in consequence of the noise and ordered Burgoyne out - I went out of the Court for a little time - I saw Mr Hood & Burgoyne came out of the hut - I heard Burgoyne say, to Mr Good, at the same time pointing to me, "that "is the bloody dog that carries "tells to you" - At the same time threw something at me which I suppose to be either a knife or a piece of stone - it struck in a log of the landing within a foot of where I was standing - I had not time to see what it was that Burgoyne threw at me for he went & picked it up directly -

+ There were two or three Jurons standing outside the door at the time I am speaking of

William Parake
Carla

Mr. Pitcher, Juron, said I was employed as Banklayer on the Gov. Works (Baltimore) and at the same time carrying that the Burgoyne came to the hut when I resided
- he appeared to have been drinking he had a gun in his hand - he took it off an ^{English} Colbeck and it created a disturbance in the hut - the man ^{Walter} took it up & asked him what he meant - Burgoyne was then standing by the fire - he threw the gun from him towards the door, and also threw his hat off and said that he meant any thing that he ^{could} ~~liked~~ - Mr Hood came into the Skut - and ordered him out - he told Mr Hood he wd not go out of the Skut for all the people on the Settlement, without he had a mind to do so - some few minutes after that he went out - I heard Baynes talk in a rough unkind way to Mr Hood - outside the Skut -
